Native American Outreach Committee

The Native American Outreach Committee (NAOC) of The Church of Jesus Christ is in the initial stages of organizing its mission, efforts and staff to diligently accomplish the Church's Divine Commission of taking the Gospel to the remnant of Israel among Native Americans/ First Nations wherever they reside.

In consideration of this organizational effort, the NAOC is seeking to fill the following positions with Brothers and Sisters who have the skills, experience and desire to support the NAOC. If you have the qualifications and the interest in participating in this exciting work for the Church, please forward your credentials to Sister Winnie Lens, Secretary of the NAOC at win.jer@verizon.net

Share the Word

Goal: To share the good news of Jesus Christ and the latter day message (the Divine Commission) with as many Native Americans/First Nations People as possible by using a Spirit of Discernment and the NAOC Handbook (see download). Open to all. Check with your Region Missionary Operating committee or Region Native American Outreach committee for additional information, or e-mail: NAOC@comcast.net .

Web Page Contributor

Goal: To populate a web page designed for Native Americans/First Nations People that includes testimonies of our Native American members either in video or written formats, photos, historical information, archeological information, etc.

- Information will be gathered from Gospel News issues, members, books, newspaper articles, etc.
- Information needs to be placed into electronic format

Currently, Brother Joe Cottellesse has volunteered to begin culling through documents, but he could use a lot of help. E-mail: dkeutsey@yahoo.com for additional information and to volunteer.

Historian

- Able to record and edit appropriate material to be transferred to the General Church Historian on a bi-annual basis.
- Research and prepare historical information on Native American/ First Nation people for Committee and General Church awareness and knowledge.
- Self directed and experienced with writing, editing and collecting historically significant materials.
